Chapter 1 by Story Wars

You know, i never had it easy. My father always ignored me when i wanted something. I got a lot of things i wanted but not all the things i wanted. Queens, New York City, NY. That is my birth place, it was tough growing up there. To actually think of it, i really had it tough more tough than New York. My father gave me a small loan of a million dollars.

(Words start to repeat itself in the back of your head while fading away)
